

INVERCLYDE WOMEN'S AID

Inverclyde Women's Aid Application Form Guidance

As the Application Form is the main way, we can decide whether or not to invite you to an interview, it is important that you give the best overall impression of yourself.

- Read all of the form and these notes first, to be sure you understand what information is requested and how to complete the form. Also read all the information you have about the job.
- Complete all sections of the form either typed or in black ink as it will be photocopied. If you have to continue on a separate sheet of paper for any of the section, please clearly mark which section your continuation sheet refers to by stating the page number. Please clearly mark each additional sheet with your surname and initial.

Section A1: Personal Details

This information will be removed prior to the short-listing process taking place. Please complete as fully as possible as we will require this to contact you.

Section A2: General

Notice

Please let us know what period of notice you expect to give your current employer if relevant

Availability

If there are any dates you could not interview within the forthcoming month. We will try to accommodate you where possible, but we cannot guarantee to interview you if you cannot attend on the specified date.

References

Employment at Inverclyde Women's Aid is subject to the receipt of two satisfactory references. You will be unable to commence employment until we have two written references for you. If you have been in paid employment one of your references must be from your current or most recent employer.

Disability

Having a permanent disability will not discount you from interview. The recruitment panel will not receive this information until after short listing has been completed. However, we do need to be aware of it as this will allow the organisation to make any arrangements which may be required to support your application. Inverclyde Women's Aid encourages applications from suitable candidates with disabilities.

INVERCLYDE WOMEN'S AID

Right to work in UK

Under the Asylum and Immigration Act (1996) as amended 2004, Inverclyde Women's Aid must check that all potential employees have the right to work in the UK. You will be asked to provide documentation to prove this if selected for interview

Section B7: Experience

Current Experience

You should include details of your current or most recent employment, or information about what you are currently doing if you are not in paid employment.

Previous Experience

This section should be used to tell us about relevant previous experience whether from employment or voluntary work.

Section B8: Educational, Technical and Professional Qualifications

Please tell us about the education and qualifications relevant to the advertised post.

It is not necessary to tell us about every SCE/H & SQA qualification you have received. Please highlight the most relevant for the post. (Scottish examples of qualifications have been used but qualifications gained in any country are equally acceptable).

Section B9: Personal Development

Please use this section to tell us about any experiences you have that have not already been mentioned which are relevant to the post advertised.

Section B10: Personal Statement

Please use this section to tell us why you are applying for this job paying particular attention to our Vision and Mission and explaining what you understand about domestic abuse.

Section C: Competency Application Form

This section is to give us specific information in support of your application. You must be able to demonstrate on this application form and at interview if called, that you can satisfy each and every aspect of the job description. Please DO NOT attach a Curriculum Vitae in place of this section as it will not be considered when short-listing applicants for interview.

INVERCLYDE WOMEN'S AID

When we read your application, we are looking for evidence that you have the skills and experience listed in the person specification. We read your application carefully, but it makes it much easier for us if you set out this evidence as clearly as you can.

It will be insufficient merely to duplicate what the person specification states. You are required to demonstrate positively your ability, commitment etc, by some reference to your academic, professional, voluntary or personal life.

Give evidence rather than assertions. A statement "I am a great communicator" is not evidence. The following statement is better: "when I was working at [job] I had to explain [subject] clearly and simply to clients. Client feedback showed that they understood what I told them and valued my style".

We require all our staff to have a commitment to the values of Inverclyde Women's Aid and to our Equal Opportunities statement. Again, you will be required to demonstrate more than a paper commitment to our beliefs by reference to what you have already achieved in these areas and what you would hope to achieve if offered the post.

Check the closing date and the return address in the Application Pack and send your application in plenty of time to reach the right person by the closing date. Inverclyde Women's Aid prefers typed applications.

If you wish to e-mail your application, please scan in your signature and paste it into the application form as a picture.

If you wish to submit this application in any other formats, please let us know as soon as you decide to apply.
